FINT'S FINE FURNITURE ART IN MAHOGANY.

The first mahogany log sent to England early in the eighteenth century was made into a bureau for the Countess of Buckingham. At once there was a great demand for mahogany furniture because of its superb coloring.

To-day it still stands the highest in favor with our correct grounding for it. Our French Wilton Carpets at $1.90 a yard shows its rich colors, gaining depth of tone and acquiring the warmest hues, supplying the shadow in the pictorial effect of a room, while relieving it with lustre from the inner fires in its dark depths.

We have a large assortment of desks many now reduced: $9.00 (reduced from $12.50), $10.50 (reduced from $14.00), $19.00 (reduced from $26.00)—and only factory prices, on all furniture, you
